ADDRESS OF THE UNION REPUBLICAN STATE OENTRAL COMMITTEE.

COMMITTER ROOMS, HARRISHURG, July 26, 1867. To the People of Pennsylvania.

Fellow Citizener.—The official term of George W. Woodward, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the State, is about to expire; and under the constitution his successor will be elected on the second Tuesday of October next. This election is every way important, and the more so because of the great principles and issues involved, and of the fact that the term is for fifteen years.

All the powers of our governments, both national and State, are divided into three classes: the Legislative, Executive and Judicial. The people are the source of all power, and our constitutions provide the manner in which all offices shall be filled, and the terms for which they shall be filled, and the terms for which they shall be filled, and the terms for which they shall be filled, and the terms for which they shall be filled, and the terms for which they shall be filled, and the terms for which they shall be filled, and the terms for which they shall be filled, and the terms for which they shall be filled, and the terms for which they shall be filled, and the terms for which they shall be filled and the terms for which they shall be filled, and the terms for which they shall be filled, and the terms for which they shall be filled, and the terms for which they shall be filled, and the terms for which they shall be filled, and the terms for which they shall be filled, and the terms for which they shall be filled, and the terms for which they shall be filled, and the terms for which they shall be filled, and the terms for which they shall be filled, and the terms for which they shall be filled, and the terms for which they shall be filled, and the terms for which they shall be filled, and the terms for which they shall be filled, and the terms for which they shall be filled, and the terms for which they shall be filled, and the terms for which they shall be filled, and the terms for which they shall be filled, and the terms for which they shall be filled, and the terms in the elected on the shall be filled, and the terms in the sec should be made with the greater caution and wisdom; for nothing is of greater public importance than a wise and patriotic judiciary. Our past history shows a constant tendency in these several departments to enlarge their respective jurisdictions, and occasionally to encroach on each other; and especially is this true of the judiciary. It is but recently the Supreme Court of the United States, in the interests of slavery, gravely undertook to overturn the foundations of the government on that question, and to nullify and destroy ment on that question, and to nullify and destroy acts of Congress enseted by the men who made the Constitution. The Dred Scott decision virtually legalized and extended slavery over all the terri-tories of the Union, in defiance of Congress and the people, and laid down principles which, but for ubsequent events, would have extended slavery and made it iawful in all the States. And after the recent civil war was inaugurated, our State judiciary, by a denial of the constitutional powers of Congress and of our State Legislature, in measures absolutely necessary to carry on the war and save the nation, so imperiled our cause as to make intelligent patriots everywhere tremble for the issue of the contest. True, these false theories did not prevail. But it is equally true the continued assertion of them paralyzed the arms of both the national and State governments, distracted and disheartened our people, gave aid and comfort to the enemy, pro-longed the war, and added immeasurably to our sacrifices of blood and treasure. Hence it is, "That, warned by past misfortunes, we ask that the Supreme Court of the State be placed in harmony with the political opinions of the majority of the people, to the end that the Court may never again, by unjust decisions, seek to set aside laws witsl to the nation."

Who, then, are HENRY W. WILLIAMS and GEORGE SHARSWOOD, the candidates for this va-cant seat upon the Supreme bench? What are there past records and where do they stand, in issues? The weal or woe of the commonwealth, and perhaps of the nation, is involved in these questions; and it behoves every patriotic voter in the State examine them. eventful times, and on these momentous n the State examine them with care. Of Judge Williams, the Union Republican candidate, we here propose to give no extended bi-ography. He is a high-toned Christian gentleman, about forty-six years of age, a ripe scholar, and a learned and eminent lawyer, with fifteen years' judicial experience on the Bench of the District Court of Allegheny county. He was first elected judge in 1831, when he ran over a thomand votes ahead of his ticket, and was re-elected in 1861 by the unanimous vote of all parties. The following extract from an editorial in the Pittsburg Post (the principal Democratic paper of the west) shows the estimation in which he is held by political adversarias. cal adversaries:

"The nomination of the Hon. Henry W. Williams as a candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court is a good one. He was the best man named be-fore the Republican Convention, and possesses legal and moral qualifications for the responsible position to which he has been nominated."

He is of the Webster and Clay school of politics, and during the recent civil war, from the beginning to the end, did everything in his power, through his means, his voice and his votes, to strengthen the hands and encourage the hearts of loyal people in the struggle to maintain the

Who and what Judge Sharswood is, as a public man, will appear from what follows: Early in the history of this nation political sen-Early in the history of this nation political sen-timent became divided on the powers of the Na-tional and State governments, and their true rela-tions to each other. On these divisions two great parties were subsequently founded. The one, known as the State Rights party, had John C. Cal-houn for its champion; and the other, for its recog-nized leader, had the great expounder of the Con-stitution, Daniel Webster. The former held free trade, and the right of multiflication and secession as cardinal doctrines, denying the constitutional powcardinal doctrines, denying the constitutional pow-er of Congress to impose duties for protection, and claiming nullification and secession as inherent rights of aState. The letter denied these assumptions, and between these conflicting principles and par-ties there has been perpetual warfare. In the main the old Whig party ranged itself under the banner of Webster, and the Democratic party under that of Calboun. One of the legitimate fruits of the State rights doctrine was the rebellion of 1844, in South Carolina, the avowed offject of which was to nullify the protective tariff law of Congress, enacted in 1828. The country at that time was saved from a disastrous civil war by the firmness of President Jackson, the wisdom of Confirmness of President Jackson, the wisdom of Congress, and the patriotism of General Scott. That effort at rebellion and civil war failed, and the principle upon which it was based was repudiated. But in 1860 and 1861 South Carolina and other rebel States again endeavored to put in force their State rights doctrins of secession. The sympathy, imbecility and connivance of President Buchanan and his advisers so contributed to the success of the effort that its consummation could only be prevented by a long, desperate and bloody only be prevented by a long, desperate and bloody civil war. In the end, and after fearful sacrifices of life and treasure, the rights and power of the national government were again vindicated, and the Calhoun doctrine of secession was again overthrown. Such. doctrine of secession was again overthrown. Such, at least, has been the popular conviction and cause for rejoicing; and even the worst of southern rebels have been compelled to confess it, and for two years past have been weeping over their "lost cause." Strange, sad and incredible as it may seem, we are already called upon to fight these great issues over again! The Democratic party, with Judge Sharswood for its leader, and with Free Trade, State Rights and Secession upon its banner, is again marshaling its hosts, and now benner, is again marshaling its hosts, and now summoning us to the field of political combat on these same issues! That party, at their national conventions in 1856 and 1860, re-adopted what are known as the Virginia and Kentucky resolutions of 1796 and 1799 as part of their platforms.

These resolutions are known as the embodiment of the old State rights and Calhoun doctrines. They do not regard the relations of the States or people thereof to the United States as constituting a government, in the ordinary and proper sense of the term, but declare them to be merely a compact and that 'as in all other cases of compact among par-ties having no common judge, each party has an equal right to judge for itself, as well of infractions As of the mode and measure of reduces."

Under this free Democratic charter for rebellion, the lawful election of Abraham Lancoln as President of the United States was claimed by the people of the rebel States as an "infraction" of the "compact;" and they chose secession and civil war as the "mode," and the destruction of the Union and State independence as "the measures of redress."

The Democratic party at its last National Convention proclaimed the war a failure; and it has now put in the field a life-long Free Trade and State Rights candidate, whom Judge Black indersed as one who "will stand by the Constitution and give pure law"—viz: who will stand by the Constitu-tion as the State Rights party construe it, and give us such "pure law" as Judge Black has given Pre-sident Buchanan and Andrew Johnson.

Judge Sharswood and his party friends have not only denied the lawful power of the national government to coerce a rebellious State, to make and enforce a draft, to make paper money a legal government to coerce a rebellious State, to make and enforce a draft, to make paper money a legal tender, to emanuipate and arm negroes, to punish rebels and traitors by disfranchisement, to suspend the writ of habest corpus in time of rebellion, or to arrest and try offenders in time of war by court-matual; but they hold that all these things, though actually done, were illegally and wrongfully done, and therefore settled nothing! Or, as the Democratic organ (the Philadelphia Age), in a recent elaborate editorial on the Republican State platform, thus expresses the same idea: "We put it to the sober thoughts of the people of Pennsylvania, whether they would not have all these grave pending questions decided according to law, and not according to war, JUST, IN PACT, AS THEY WOULD HAVE HEEN BEGINED HAD NO WAR TAKER PLAGE!"

Is, then, the "lost cause" not lost? Has the late dreadful war decided nothing? Is the right of seconding an open question! Has slavery not been abolished? Are not the four millions of bondsmen free? Has our national debt no legal existence? Have the victors no power over the vanquished? Have the rebel States and people lost no rights by rebellion? Have our sacrifices of blood and treasure been all made in vain? Fellow-citizens, weigh well these solemn questions, and answer them at the ballot-box on the second Tuesday of October next?

Having concluded to reserve for a future occa-

of October next?

Having concluded to reserve for a future occaion some remarks on party organization and other lopics, this address might here properly close. But it may be asked by some, is Judge Sharswood indeed the political heresto herein set forth. "A man is known by the company he keeps," says the old adage. We have the right to assume, and have assumed, that the Judge is of the same political assumed, that the Judge is of the same political faith as his party, and the public will hold him responsible for all the guilty acts and omissions of his party. There can be no mistaking the true position of the man who recently delivered an elaborate opinion denying the constitutional power of Congress to make paper money a legal tender. (See the case of Borie vs. Trott, Legal Intelligencer of March 18, 1864, page 92.) And when we go further back, and examine his early history, we find ample justification for all we have written, and more. So long ago as April, 1834, he appeared as "The Orator of the Day" at a meeting of a States' Rights Association in Philadelphia. We here copy some of the proceedings of that interesting convocation from "The Examiner and Journal of Political Economy, Devoted to the Adpal of Political Economy, Devoted to the Advancement of the Cause of State Rights and Free Trade," vol. 1, page 309.

The orator on that occasion delivered a long and carefully prepared vindication and eulogy of the State rights Virginia and Kentucky resolutions

State rights Virginia and Kentucky resolutions beteinbefore cited, and summed up his elaborate indorsements thereof as follows:

"We come back to our starting place, and finding nething in the Constitution establishing any final judge of the enumerated powers, prohibitions, and reserved rights, it must rest upon the admitted principles of general law, in cases of compact between parties having no common superior. Each State has the right to Judge for itself of the infractions of the Compact. And to choose for itself the THE COMPACT, AND TO CHOOSE FOR ITSELF THE MOST PROPER AND EFFICIENT REMEDIES."

The better to exhibit still further, if possible, the true character of that meeting and its distinguished orator, the following toasts are copied from the proceedings. (Same vol., page 312.)

TOAST: "JOHN C. CA: HOUN—The first to throw himself into the breach against Federal usurpation. May he live to see his principles predominant throughout the world " Toast: "The Patriots, otherwise called Nullifiers, of South Carolina—their memories will be cher-ished when the advocates of the Force Bill are forgotten, or remembered with execration." Toast: "The State of South Carolina-as her prin-ciples are cherished, we need not fear usurpation, either in the Legislative, Judicial or Executive departments of the government."

The Hon John C. Calhoun was among those invited to this meeting by Judge Sharswood and others, but declined in a published letter of sym-

We thus submit, as briefly as possible, the record of the Democratic candidate, and of the party which placed him in nomination. We feet that no added comments could do justice to the subject; and only ask you, fellow-citizens, to examine the whole record with care, and, under a sense of your solemn responsibilities to your country, render your verdict at the ensuing election.

By order of the Committee.

FOR ADDITIONAL LOCAL ITEMS SEE OUTSIDE PAGES,

Building Improvements .- Workmen have commenced digging cellars for twenty-one dwellings at Sixteenth and Christian streets. Seven of them are to be erected on Sixteenth street, and fourteen on Christian street. Five more are also to be erected on Christian street, west of Sixteenth. The block of houses on Carpenter street, between Fifteenth and Sixteenth streets, will be completed the present season, while those on Montrose street, in the rear of the above, are nearly ready for tenants.

A large lotof ground at Seventeenth street and Washington avenue has recently been purchased by a gentleman who intends erecting an extensive foundry. A number of other improvements are contemplated in this vicinity.

The Masonic Order have purchased the fine lot of ground extending from Broad street to Juniper street, and from Filbert street to Cuth-bert street, for the sum of $152,000. The pur-chase has been made subject to existing leases, and the magnificent hali which the fraternity will crect will not be commenced perhaps for a year hence. The old mansion on the premises, and fine ground adjoining, were formerly occu-pied by the Society of Friends as a female seminary. The garden on the east side of the man-sion extends to Juniper street, running back to Cuthbert, and is filled with fruit trees. The Vaughn Grammar School, which is being erected in Marlborough street, above Thompson, will be built of brown stone, after the plan of the Lincoln Grammar School, at Twentieth and Coates streets. It will be 31 by 77 feet, and three stories high. There will be six divisions each floor, making eighteen in all. The lot is 137 by 102 feet, thus giving ample space for a play-ground.

THE HORSE-SHOERS .- A meeting of horseshoers of the city was held last evening, at a public house on Sixth street, below Race. Several items of business, of interest to the trade, were presented for the consideration of the meeting, among which was the following scale of prices:—Shoeing horses, $3; mules, $2.50 to $3, but in no case less than $2.50; bar shoes in all cases double price; leathers and dressing, per foot, 25 cents extra; removing shoes, nall price; removing and sharpening, 25 cents extra, and in no case shall there be any animal shod for less than $2.50. A long discussion took place on the adoption of a constitution and by-laws, after which the meeting adjourned.

THE BANKRUPT LAW.—The persons who have petitioned for the benefit of the Bankrupt law in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania number over thirty. About two-thirds of these belong to the city of Philadelphia, and those chiefly in the districts in which Messrs. McMichael, Fisher, and Ashton are registers. In all except two or three cases the bankrupts petition for the benefit of the set; in the except decays the the benefit of the act; in the excepted cases the creditors ask it. Judge Cadwalader devotes much of his time to the consideration of questions which are continually arising in the Court.

SUICIDE OF A PHILADELPHIAN AT CHICAGO,-Mr. George H. Eveleth, whose wife and family resides at No. 11 South Second street, in this city, committed suicide on Monday last, by taking morphia. He was a travelling agent for Mesers. Rounds & James, printers, of Chicago, and was well known in business circles. He had been in the employment of the printing firm since 1856, with a short interregnum during the war, during which he served in a Pennsylvania infantry regiment.

THE OVERS IMPEACHMENT COMMITTEE .- The Committee of Councils appointed to prepare articles of impeachment in the Ovens impeachment case, held another meeting yesterday afternoon in the office of the Clerk of the Common Councils pursuant to adjournment. The sub-committee previously appointed to prepare articles of impeachment made their report, which was adopted. The committee will meet again previous to presenting the same to Coun-

THEM,

Performing feats of the most marvellous and incomprehensible character.

"This Troupe comprises twenty-four persons, each of whom has a speciality, and excels in it. And the whole combination is undoubtedly the most talented, by far, of any that have yet appeared in this city,"—
San Francisco Times, June 10.

'Sated as our people are with Japanese performances, that of last evening was keenly relished, and everybody went home loud in its praise. The company is the strongest that has yet appeared."—San Francisco Bulletin, June 11.

"It is evident that there is as much difference between them and their predecessors in point of skill as between Leotard or Hanion and a street tumbler.
They have amply indicated their right to be considered the best Troupe that has left Japan, and altogether the most perfect."—San Francisco Times,

June 11.

The enormous houses which have nightly attended the startling performances of the MARVELLOUS ARABS during the past week at the Olympic Theatre give the evident assurance of their wonderful skill.

The applicance continuous, and calminating in outbursts of excited "bravos," reaching degrees of anthusiasm rarely witnessed within the walls of a basic.

TWENTY-FOUR JAPANESE, THIRTY ARABS, TWENTY-FOUR JAPANESE, THIRTY ARABS, FIFTY-FOUR ASIATIC MARVELS. It may easely be assumed that plane of THE CLERGY AND DIGNITARIES of those cities is of liself an overwhelming evidence Rare Historical and Scientific nature of the performance.

It is, says the Brooklyn "Fagle," impossible to describe these marvels. To be understood they must be seen, and seeing, one must be assured that he is awake and not dreaming, to believe.

Imagine a human being, the King of the Desert, springing into the air like a bird with one wing clipped, and REVOLVING THIRE TIMES HORIZONTALLY! TALLY!
Jingine others skipping in the air, like mammoth grasshoppers, bounding as an India-rubber ball,
GYRATING AND REVOLVING

OF ALL HUMAN MARVELS THESE ARE
